These 31 Junior professionals are selected to follow a two-year programme combining a first year with specific training provided by the European School of Public Administration with two six-month posting in two different DGs and a second year posted in their DG of origin.

For the 30 junior professionals who will be offered a temporary agent contract there is no guarantee of recruitment at the end of the two years. To become Official, they will have to succeed an internal competition that will be open to other staff.
