

Víctor JUAN LINARES

EC official since October 2002. Currently in DG NEAR. U4U active member since 2012. In my previous professional life, I've also experienced other more precarious forms of work in other European institutions.

The dialogue role of staff representatives and trade unions is not an artificial creation, but responds to the configuration of our democratic system itself. The permanent criticism and discrediting of them immediately affect our working conditions.

On the other hand, for most people in working age, work is the essential element of participation and integration in society. And the conditions in which our work is progressing will affect all areas and aspects of our existence.

It is therefore essential to realize the importance of exercising the right to vote to those who are going to work in defense of what sets our workaday up.

This awareness made me go a step further and introduce myself as a candidate for the list U4U.

And if you are someone who thinks “What a union is for?”. Please, join it, discover it, and improve it! Or ask yourself how your life would be if they did not exist...
