

Catherine Vieilledent-Monfort

Short resume : DG Translation, Coordinator of studies on translation and multilingualism, administrator, EN, FR, DE, IT spoken, committed to the European civil service for 20 years, active in civil society etc

Why I forward my candidacy : The European Union is badly in need of a new impetus and I believe that the European civil service is a key asset, if properly managed. I wish to contribute to collective and united action

What are my priorities: My priorities are to help correct severe imbalances built into the system after successive reforms of the Staff regulation and to help colleagues engage with their work and with the broader European policies

What will be my pet subjects: fairness, citizenship
